

2021 CHARITY IMPACT

2021 was the 30th running of the Gorham Savings Bank Maine Marathon, Half-Marathon, and Marathon Relay. One of the longest running marathon events in New England, the Maine Marathon is Maine Track Club's premier all volunteer event.

For 2021, the Maine Marathon had eight primary beneficiaries: Teens to Trails, Wayside Food Programs, Team Long Run, Port Resources, Pihcintu Multinational Girls Chorus, Shawnee Peak Adaptive Ski, Spurwink and Camp Susan Curtis. With total donations over $460,000, the charitable impact of the event has increased as the event grows.

2021 DONATION FUNDING

Maine Marathon $122,164

At the center of the Maine Marathon's mission is giving back to the community that gives us so much. Beneficiaries include: Teens to Trails, Wayside Food Programs, Team Long Run, Port Resources, Pihcintu Multinational Girls Chorus, Shawnee Peak Adaptive Ski, Spurwink, Camp Susan Curtis as well as over 30 other Maine charities.

Charity Bib Program $327,062

Maine Marathon's Run for a Cause charity bib program is perfect for charities that may not have the time or resources to organize their own large fundraising race, but still want a fun, well-established, community-minded event to raise awareness - and money - for their cause.

Beneficiaries include: Marr Alzheimer's Research Fund, Maine Children's Cancer Program, Teens to Trails, Maine Coast Fisherman's Association, Through These Doors, Call to Care Uganda, Girls on the Run, Aucocisco School, The Maddie Kate Fund and ACPMP Research Foundation.

Runners $13,051

When registering, Maine Marathon participants can also add a donation to their race fees. The amount raised by runner donations is distributed among all the beneficiaries.
